

CFNC.org

Sarah Molloy

16D73FF1BAC8E0A419AFDCE0BD9D020D

✓ Sarah Molloy is Certified

Financial Basics for High School is a financial literacy program for students across North Carolina. In order to earn certification, each student must complete the 40,000+ word curriculum with a final grade of 100% correct in each subject area.

Students typically spend between four and six hours earning Financial Basics certification.

Financial Basics is recognized by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction as a Career and Technical Education credential.

Coursework Summary

Sarah completed the following courses:

Borrowing and Credit

November 13, 2017

Buying a Home

November 13, 2017

Choices About Money

November 13, 2017

Compound Interest

November 13, 2017

Earning a Living

November 13, 2017

Education and Financial Success

November 13, 2017

Financial Health

November 13, 2017

Financial Services

November 13, 2017

Managing Financial Accounts

November 13, 2017

Planning for Your Financial Future

November 13, 2017

Protecting Your Financial Identity

November 13, 2017

Protecting Your Success With Insurance

November 13, 2017

Recognizing Financial Problems

November 13, 2017

Renting an Apartment

November 13, 2017

Smart Spending

November 13, 2017

This certificate can be verified at CFNC's Financial Basics.